Precursor's Narvey Heads to Apple Connect 2012

Contact: Alex Narvey

Precursor Systems is pleased to announce that company founder Alex Narvey will be attending Apple Connect 2012 March 11-16th in Toronto.

Apple Connect 2012 "is an intense, week-long technical training camp designed for Information Technology Specialists looking for the very latest, clear and concise information based on real life implementations and experience, who want to complement and go beyond certified training, from the top iOS/OS X subject matter experts."

The agenda for AC 2012 features over 30 different sessions, featuring real life implementations, troubleshooting, and best practices delivered by top iOS and OS X subject matter experts, Apple senior engineers and Apple curriculum authors. Apple invites qualified individuals such as: advanced support personnel from Apple Authorized Resellers, members of the Apple Consultants Network, Apple Authorized Trainers, or Corporate and Education invited VIP guests to attend this technical training.

This is the fifth year in a row that Apple Canada is putting on this training event at the BMO Institute for Learning in Toronto. And, this will be the 10th Apple training camp (six in Canada and four in the U.S.) that Alex has gone to since 2005.

Apple Connect 2012 promises to be the best yet.

Precursor Systems was founded in March 1994 by Alex Narvey to provide support for computer-based professionals in the Publishing, Printing, Prepress, Digital Imaging, Audio and Video industries.
