

Precursor's Narvey Heads to Apple Connect 2011

Contact: Alex Narvey

Precursor Systems is pleased to announce that company founder Alex Narvey will be attending Apple Connect 2011 March 13-18th in Toronto.

Apple Connect 2011 is a week-long technical training camp designed by Apple Canada for people whose businesses are defined by "an ability to deliver superior services to their clients using Apple products and technologies."

The agenda for AC 2011 features real-life implementation, troubleshooting, and best practices delivered by Mac OS X subject matter experts, Apple senior engineers, Apple curriculum authors, and Apple evangelists. Apple invites qualified individuals such as: advanced support personnel from Apple Authorized Resellers, members of the Apple Consultants Network, Apple Authorized Trainers, or Corporate and Education invited VIP guests to attend this technical training.

This is the fourth year in a row that Apple Canada is putting on this training event at the BMO Institute for Learning in Toronto. And, this will be the 9th Apple training camp (five in Canada and four in the U.S.) that Alex has gone to since 2005.

Apple Connect 2011 promises to be the best yet.

"The BMO-IFL is an amazing facility," says Precursor Founder Alex Narvey. "And this year's speakers list is better than it has ever been!"

Precursor Systems was founded in March 1994 by Alex Narvey to provide support for computer-based professionals in the Publishing, Printing, Prepress, Digital Imaging, Audio and Video industries.
