

Precursor's Narvey Attends WWDC 2009!

Contact: Alex Narvey

Precursor Systems is pleased to announce that company founder Alex Narvey will be attending the Apple World Wide Developer Conference 2009 (WWDC 2009) in San Francisco, June 8-12.

WWDC is Apple's annual programmers conclave where programmers, developers and i.t. professionals can immerse themselves in over 150 information-rich sessions and labs where Apple engineers go in-depth on the innovative technologies that power iPhone OS, Mac OS X, and Mac OS X Server. This year's edition will focus on iPhone 3.0 and the upcoming Mac OS X Snow Leopard.

The 2009 edition of WWDC sold out faster than any previous developers conference and will host approximately 6,000 attendees and over 1,000 Apple engineers.

Precursor Systems was founded in March 1994 by Alex Narvey to provide support for computer-based professionals in the Publishing, Printing, Prepress, Digital Imaging, Audio and Video industries.
