

Precursor's Narvey at Macworld Expo 2011

Contact: Alex Narvey

Precursor Systems is pleased to announce that founder Alex Narvey will be returning to Macworld Expo 2011 in San Francisco.

This will be Alex's fifth trip to Macworld Expo but the first such Expo without Apple's participation (Apple withdrew from the event in 2010).

In addition to checking out 3rd party vendors on the show floor in Moscone West, Alex will take part in a one day MacTech Boot Camp, attend the three day MacIT seminars track, and participate in various Apple Consultants Network events including the ACN Annual General Meeting and the ACN Dinner.

This year, Alex will even be hosting an event: nicknamed "The 39 Steps to iOS". This will be a round table gathering of members of the Apple Consultants Network to discuss recent developments in Apple's product line, marketing and service delivery strategy as they pertain to a consultant's practice.

Precursor Systems –and indirectly, its customer base– benefits greatly from meeting face-to-face with other consultants, I.T. experts, resellers and with software and hardware vendors of all the latest and greatest.

The highlight this year just might be getting tickets to the famous Cirque du Mac 8.0 Party – an invitation-only party where Mac luminaries like Chris Breen, Paul Kent, and Chuck LaTournous form the Macworld All Star Band and play rock and roll into the wee hours (or whenever San Fran shuts down for the night).

Precursor Systems was founded in March 1994 by Alex Narvey to provide support for computer-based professionals in the Publishing, Printing, Prepress, Digital Imaging, Audio and Video industries.
