Precursor's Narvey Attends Mac Dev Ops Conference

Contact: Alex Narvey

Precursor Systems is pleased to announce that company founder Alex Narvey will be attending the Mac Dev Ops Conference, June 19 in Vancouver, B.C.

macdevops: YVR is "All things Mac, Dev, and Ops" is a conference put together by Vancouver consultants Mat X and Brian Warsing and features speakers from throughout the Pacific Northwest presenting on a number of topics related to Mac administration and deployment.

"I have known Mat Xavier for several years now through the various Apple Connect conferences and was thrilled to know he was sharing his vast expertise in a conference setting," said Precursor founder Alex Narvey.

The Dev Ops movement is loosely defined as applying the rigours of the development cycle to the operational life cycle of computers deployed at scale. It has become a focal point for the latest in best practices for the management and mobile management of devices in a secure but flexible I.T. setting.

Precursor Systems was founded in March 1994 by Alex Narvey to provide support for computer-based professionals in the Publishing, Printing, Prepress, Digital Imaging, Audio and Video industries.
