

Internet Explorer 5.0 Service Release 1

Microsoft has produced a Service Release upgrade for Internet Explorer. This is a small but important patch since it corrects bugs with QuickTime, Flash and email.

GraphicConverter 4.1

Lemke Software's GraphicConverter just keeps getting better. Version 4.1 fixes bugs and adds even more graphic formats. This is a must-have piece of shareware.

Netscape 6.2

Not that I am recommending this but for those of you who are just stuck on Netscape, version 6.2 looks like it might be usable. It comes in Mac OS /89 and Mac OS X versions. It would be confidence inspiring if Time/AOL could at least get the right URL on its download page. If you really are a masochist go straight to the ftp server noted below:
